ASAIN ORGANIZATIONS

Synopsis: Request for linguistic assistance.

Details: In February 2006, Las Vegas Division and Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department (LVMPD) began a joint investigation to identify, target, and disrupt Asian criminal enterprises operating in the Las Vegas Valley that are involved in human trafficking, alien smuggling, drug trafficking, and other illegal activities. Through surveillance, cooperative witnesses, and [REDACTED] several Asian brothels have been identified. These brothels are known as "ten-day houses" as they rotate their stock of prostitutes approximately every ten days. The majority of girls working at these brothels are Korean and Chinese, however, Malaysian, Thai, and Vietnamese girls have been identified. Asian female [REDACTED] and her Korean [REDACTED] LNU own and operate a brothel at [REDACTED]. This brothel is the largest identified thus far, open 24 hours a day, operating approximately 15 girls, and with a clientele of approximately 80 to 100 a day.

Though it would be beneficial to the investigation to allow this brothel operation to continue in order to identify a broker of prostitutes from out of state, LVMPD has received many complaints from the community and it must be shut down. LVMPD will [REDACTED]

LVMPD has Korean linguists on hand. Las Vegas has a need for one Cantonese, one Mandarin, one Malaysian, one Thai, and one Vietnamese linguist for the brothel disruption that will take place the evening of [REDACTED]. It is estimated that the total shift for the day of [REDACTED], beginning in the evening hours. [redacted] who read and signed an FD-395.18 Advice of Rights/Waiver of Rights form, provided the following information:

[redacted] in Los Angeles. A friend of hers who works as a prostitute in Los Angeles told her that she could make a lot of money working in Las Vegas, so [redacted] came to Las Vegas to work as a prostitute. [redacted] drove her here, although she didn't tell him why she was coming. [redacted] arrived on [redacted] and had planned on going back to Los Angeles on [redacted] but she had not made as much money as she wanted to so she decided to stay until Monday. She thought that Monday would be a good day to leave as there was a new girl who was arriving then.

[redacted] originally stated that a taxi drove her, by herself, from Los Angeles to Las Vegas and that the charge was $400. [redacted] paid the $400 with her own money, and she was going to pay her way back. [redacted] did not help her pay the fee. The driver spoke some English, but they did not talk much, and [redacted] did not know the driver's name. The taxi driver knew how to get to [redacted] house. [redacted] would call a Chinese taxi driver to take them back to Los Angeles, and [redacted] stated that it would be the same car. [redacted] originally stated that the taxi looked like a regular taxi. Later, [redacted] stated that the taxi did not look like a regular taxi, but like a four door dark sedan. [redacted] does not know if the other girls at [redacted] house took the same taxi.

_____ arrived on the same day as _____. _____ is an alias name. _____ alias name is _____ flew into Las Vegas, Nevada. _____ wanted to save money so she got a ride from a stranger. However, both _____ planned to leave Las Vegas, Nevada because the work was too hard. _____ explained that the customers in Las Vegas, Nevada are always drunk and they lose their inhibitions making the work more difficult. The customers are verbally abusive due to their drunkenness and it becomes harder for her to manage them. She also elaborated that the men handle her rougher because the alcohol makes them less aware of their strength.

_____ worked at multiple brothels in Los Angeles, California, but she only worked at one location in Las Vegas, Nevada. _____ does not remember the addresses of the other brothels, but you had to take certain taxi cabs to get to these brothels. The girls that worked at the brothels in Los Angeles, California referred to the taxi cabs they had to ride in as "Seven Taxi."

A friend, _____, introduced _____ to the taxi driver. _____ is in similar circumstances as _____ knew _____ in Korea. _____ came to the US first and started working at bars that had Geisha-like work where the girls would drink and visit with the men. However, that line of work was not paying enough money so _____ started brothel type work. When _____ arrived in the US she needed money and followed the example of _____.

b6

_____ had to give the taxi driver an "introduction fee" of approximately $60 to $70. The fee varied by driver, but _____ had to pay this fee for every cab ride to the brothels. You had to arrive at the brothel by a "Seven Taxi" cab to be admitted into the establishment.

as there were a certain number of girls at the brothel to take care of customers, the other girls could leave the brothel to do as they pleased. In Los Angeles, California, you could work one day (a day consisted of a 12 hour shift), then leave.

The brothel sets the rate for the customer and informs the customer how much they will have to pay. The brothel customers come inside the brothel and they pick the girl that they desire. The girl collects the money, usually $150, directly from the customer, and pays the brothel their cut of approximately $40 to $50. The manager of the brothel collects the payment from the girl. This is the common practice in Las Vegas, Nevada and Los Angeles, California.

_____ is not married.

b7C

When asked what the working conditions were like, _____ stated that the Las Vegas, Nevada brothel located at _____ was very dirty. She shared a room with another girl and the two girls would work and sleep in that room. There is only one bed in the room, so the two girls would sleep in the same bed. Condoms were provided and they did not have to pay for them. In Los Angeles, California, the girls would use random rooms, the brothels were cleaner, and condoms were also provided.

When asked if she was ever physically abused, _____ stated that she was not physically abused. However, the brothel owners would get psychologically abusive with the girls if they seemed lazy. The brothel owners would tell the girls what they did wrong with customers and if the customers continued to complain about the girl, she would get fired.

[redacted] had her driver's license on her at the house, [redacted] [redacted] where she was working. She was not sure if her driver's license was seized by the police. Her passport is at her residence in San Francisco.

b6
b7C

[redacted] came to the United States (US) approximately four years ago willingly to make money. She did not want to live in Korea so [redacted] told a female friend, name unknown, and that friend introduced [redacted] to an unknown male. [redacted] met with the unknown male

After working at [redacted] went to school and worked various part-time jobs. She worked at a [redacted] every now and then. [redacted] also worked on and off as a prostitute at brothels in [redacted]. A friend, [redacted] introduced her to these brothels.

[redacted] did the same type of work as [redacted] but [redacted] has since stopped. [redacted] came to the US under the same circumstances as [redacted] someone paid for [redacted] travel to the US.

b7C

Initially, [redacted] had to call the owner of the brothel, unknown male, and inform him of when [redacted] wanted to work at the brothel. The brothel owner would then contact the Chinese taxi cab drivers and arrange the pick-up/transport of [redacted]. The brothel owner, then called [redacted] and told her when the taxi would arrive.

[redacted] stated that the Chinese taxi cab drivers did not give out their names. [redacted] had to pay the Chinese taxi drivers $200 per round trip to the brothel. You could only get to the brothel by a Chinese taxi cab driver.

b7C

After the first few visits, [redacted] no longer needed [redacted] to call the brothel owner as the brothel owner started calling [redacted] directly and asking her when she wanted to work.

The brothel in San Jose was not located within the city limits. It was a house with a similar set-up and environment as the house at [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated that she does not report to anyone.

[redacted] flew to Las Vegas, Nevada and was introduced to [redacted] whom [redacted] identified as [redacted] when shown a picture of [redacted] driver license, by a friend, referred to as [redacted]. The picture was submitted to the file via a FD-340 envelope. [redacted] used to work in Las Vegas, Nevada, but she moved to San Francisco, California, where [redacted]

b6

[redacted] was aware of the conditions at [redacted] place, from what [redacted] explained to her, prior to arrival. The conditions were that you had to wake-up at certain hours and work until closing; charge the customer a certain amount, pay the house a certain amount, and work a minimum of ten days. The hours were either 11:00 a.m. until 3:00 a.m. or 4:00 p.m. until 5:00 a.m. You switched shifts every other day. Asian customers were charged $120 with the house getting a $40 cut. All non-Asian customers were charged $150 with the house getting a $50 cut. Any customer arriving via taxi-cab was charged $300 to $400 depending on the taxi-cab driver.

b6
b7C

Each taxi-cab driver would get a kickback for transporting the customer. In these instances, the manager of the brothel would tell the girl how much to collect from the customer and how much the manager was to be paid. After the manager collected the payment from the girl, the manager paid the taxi-cab driver. The girls kept $100, the house kept $50, and the remainder was paid to the driver. The manager collecting the money from the girls was either [redacted]

The house collected $20 from each girl per day for food and supplies. The house provided condoms. Either [redacted] brought in the food and supplies.

[redacted] slept in the same room she worked in. That room was shared with another girl and the room had only one bed. Depending on the shift, [redacted] either slept alone or slept with the other girl.

If a girl got sick, for example a cold, they would take medicine and not work. In those instances the girls could stay at the house while they recovered from their illness.

When [redacted] met with her Korean contacts regarding travel to the US, they promised her that she would make a lot of money. [redacted] understood the work would be prostitution, but the money is not even close to what she was promised. [redacted] stated she felt deceived by the promises.

b6
b7C

[redacted] is not married, but she heard she could gain legal status through marriage. There was no promise of marriage. [redacted] was not asked to smuggle anything into the US and she does not know the owner of The Palm Tree.

[REDACTED] was not aware of a website by the brothels, but she has seen their business cards. [REDACTED] does not have a website.

When asked what other brothels [REDACTED] worked, she stated she worked at a brothel in [REDACTED]. The brothel was located in [REDACTED] and it was a [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] heard this brothel was raided.

b6
b7C

A girl from [REDACTED] known as [REDACTED] introduced [REDACTED] to the [REDACTED] called the brothel owner and the brothel owner made pick up arrangements. [REDACTED] had to pay for her airplane ticket and other travel costs to [REDACTED].

From the time [REDACTED] entered the US she worked at [REDACTED] brothel in San Francisco, a brothel in [REDACTED] brothel(s) in San Francisco, brothel(s) in San Jose, and the brothel located at [REDACTED].

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] stated that there were no house rules, no punishment, no abuses, no trades, and the girls were able to use their cellular telephones when they pleased.

The only security measure the brothels had was a camera. The brothels did not search the girls' personal property.

If [REDACTED] needed to contact someone, she stated she would call [REDACTED] also known as, [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] is not [REDACTED] boss and he is not involved in this type of business.

b6
b7C

Prior to coming to the US, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] does not know [REDACTED].
[REDACTED] does not have any bosses.

[REDACTED] stated that she was not asked to recruit any family or friends and she stated she had no knowledge of any smuggling routes or of any public officials being paid to allow smuggling/human trafficking.

SYNOPSIS:

On 4-21-07 [REDACTED] was arrested as he was leaving the residence before the search warrant was executed at the above address of [REDACTED]. This residence was confirmed as a house of prostitution from nearly two years of investigation involving Asian brothels in the Las Vegas area. As the investigation developed, [REDACTED] was alleged to be the [REDACTED] of operating the brothel while working under the subject by the name of [REDACTED].

b6
b7C

DETAILS:

Sometime in March of 2006, the Criminal Intelligence Section of the LVMPD and the Organized Crime Squad of the Las Vegas FBI initiated a joint investigation targeting a group of individuals involved in operating houses of prostitution, possibly human trafficking, indentured servitude and interstate transportation of prostitutes. During the investigation, a subject only identified as [REDACTED] was known to be the [REDACTED] and working for [REDACTED] brothel.

On 4-21-07, a search warrant was executed at the address of [REDACTED]. Subsequent to the execution of search warrant, six subjects that were inside the residence either working as prostitutes or managing the brothel were taken into custody and transported to the LVMPD Investigative Service Division for interview.

During the interview with [REDACTED] she stated that she came to the United States in March of 2006 and had to pay someone to come to the United States. In April 16, 2007, [REDACTED] stated that she came to Las Vegas and on April 20, 2007, she was brought to [REDACTED] by a Chinese taxi driver, who told her that she could make $3,000 to $4,000 a month, but did not tell her what she had to do. [REDACTED] believed that her job was to clean and talk to people that came to location until she realized that there was something wrong due to girls wearing "very little". [REDACTED] stated that she was familiar with the name of [REDACTED].

On 04-21-07 a search warrant was executed on [redacted] and several subjects including [redacted] and [redacted] who were inside the residence at the time of the execution, were taken into custody and interviewed. During the interviews, [redacted] both stated that [redacted] worked the night shift from [redacted]

On 04-22-07 at approximately 0045 hrs., the surveillance unit observed [redacted] exiting the residence of [redacted] which is the residence of [redacted] and entering the [redacted]. Shortly after, a marked patrol unit initiated a traffic stop and placed [redacted] under arrest. [redacted] was then transported to LVMPD Investigative Service Division for an interview. While inventorying the vehicle, Officer [redacted] found a bottle containing several pills with a "Playboy Bunny" embossed on them, which appeared to be the controlled substance/Ecstasy from the center console of the vehicle.

b6
b7D

On the same day at approximately 0200 hrs., a search warrant was executed on [redacted]. During the search, two clear plastic bags with numerous pink colored pills with "Playboy Bunny", which appeared to be controlled substance/Ecstasy, were found in the bottom drawer of the master bathroom vanity. The two bags appeared to be two boats of Ecstasy (Boat is a street term indicating 1000 pills of Ecstasy.)

b6
b7C

During the interview, [redacted] was asked if he wished to talk to us. [redacted] said that it was all [redacted] had nothing to do with a brothel. [redacted] also said that he would only cooperate if we would give [redacted] and
